GET INVOLVED

Community Relations, Beautification & Special Events Committee

works to enhance the image and quality of life of Jensen Beach through beautification projects and by producing events that showcase our business community, enhance community pride, and raise funds for chamber and community programs and projects.

- Jammin Jensen – Every Thursday Night Downtown
- Small Business Connection Expo - March
- Frances Langford Memorial Fishing Tournament & Fish Fry - May
- Jensen Beach Pineapple Festival - November
- Taste of Jensen - December
- Jensen Beach Fine Art & Craft Show - January

Education Committee works to achieve a cooperative interchange of goals, information, and activities between local businesses and local schools. Presents the Teachers & Staff Appreciation Breakfast, Adopt-A-Class, Teacher and Student of the Month, and Junior Achievement Success Skills Program at Jensen Beach High School.

Ambassadors work to promote the benefits of Chamber membership and serve as a liaison to Chamber members. Ambassadors assist in member development, retention and organize ribbon cuttings.

Business, Public Policy & Tourism Committee works to develop and implement a broad program to enhance quality business growth; encourage economic diversification and job growth; address the needs of small business; works closely with local economic development organizations to attract new business; and assists the local tourism industry to reach its full potential. The committee maintains open dialogue with elected officials and monitors issues that affect business.

Entrepreneurship Foundation, Inc. is a specialized 501c3 nonprofit educational foundation that provides resources needed to promote and encourage an entrepreneurial culture by unifying education, public and private sector resources to benefit current and future entrepreneurs.

Building Fund seeks in-kind and cash contributions to fund the construction of our new Chamber headquarters building.
